THE EPIDEMIC.

The City Council has finally taken action looking to the stamping out of the diphtheria epidemic. It has instructed the committee on municipal laws to frame a new ordinance governing the frame a new ordinance governing the matter; but a more important moveas it may deem advisable. The board on the auspicious annual monthly occonsists of the Mayor, the quarantine casion. physician and the Conneil standing committee on sanitary regulations. Upon this board will devolve the duty of at once enforcing strict quarantine regulations. That there is necessity for Canyon, is in the city. In all these discussions and out Utah. In all these discussions and conversations, one of the expressions most frequently heard is: "I would do so-and so;" another is: "He should do this - or - that." Both of these are uncalled for, and more or less impertinent or impudent. If a man is in the position of one of the accused; if he is under indictment and conviction is certain as it is in every case that goes into the it is in every case that goes into the District Court, he may be able to say what he will do; but the man who is not in that position, who is in no danger of art and imprisonment, can no more Goldsmith & Co.'s Announcement of what he would do under the what he would do under the unpleasant circumstances, than he can tell what he will do next year.
